FLOOD RELIEF FOR MYANMAR — NOW

Donations, noted for “Flood Relief”, may be made through the website <http://cetana.org/donate/> or by a check to the address above.

Flooding in western Myanmar has isolated and left residents homeless in an area wider than Cyclone Nargis. Roads are washed out. Food and medical supplies must be sent by boat.

Food must be provided. The floods came with little warning. These residents live day by day in the best of times. They had no opportunity to stockpile supplies.

Cetana is making an urgent appeal for relief funds that will be channeled through Better Burmese Health Care, an organization directed by Jalin Sama and Robert Berg, former Cetana Board members. They and their partners are on the ground and, as with Cyclone Nargis, are able to move quickly to ensure that the aid reaches those in need.

The people of Myanmar are most grateful for your help.
